BANQUET A SUCCESS

SPIRIT OF UNITY AND OPTIMISM
PERVADES CHAMBER OF COM-MERCE "GET-TOGETHER" FEAST

When the chairman of the Chamber of Commerce opened the proceedings at the banquet given by that body at the Sanitarium Thursday night, he must have been gratified with the large and representative body of citizens of both sexes he saw before him. About 100 were present. A spirit of unity and optimism pervaded all the proceedings, and the immediate effect was to bring together people of all sections of the city and get them to act as one. This spirit of unity was manifest in all the speeches of the evening.

Mr. J. W. Usilton, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce, was chairman of the evening. The dinner served by the Sanitarium management was a menu of particularly pleasing nature, entirely vegetarian in character, and of sufficient variety to excite the interest of the guests. The service was excellent and much praise was given the silent-footed girls who moved about their duties without confusion and with a precision that told of careful training.

Mr. J. W. Usilton, the chairman, opened the program by a brief to the point, in which he said that he was pleased to see so many present. The interest taken in the welfare of the city by a majority of the citizens was very gratifying to the chamber, the members of which constantly worked for the good of the city. A project they had in hand at that time, he stated, was that of inducing manufacturers to settle in the city. He took pleasure in announcing that Glendale would have one new industry at least by the beginning of next year—the Coker ice plant, to be opened by Mr. H. P. Coker of the Valley Supply company.

The chairman then introduced Mr. H. P. Coker as toastmaster and left the further conduct of proceedings in his hands. Mr. Coker announced that the Chamber of Commerce had entered into negotiations with the Wood Manufacturing company for the erection of their manufacturing plant in Glendale. That company was looking around for a site and if they could get a suitable one in Glendale they would settle there. Mr. Coker also stated that a committee of the chamber had investigated the standing of the Wood Manufacturing company and found it highly satisfactory. The firm wanted the city to donate them three acres on which they would erect a building 300x50 feet. At present the Wood Manufacturing company is located at 1832 E. Sixteenth street, Los Angeles. Various details of the negotiations were read and particular attention was called to the reversion clause inserted in the proposed agreement, by which in case of change in conditions the property would revert to the city. On the motion of Mr. A. T. Cowan, proprietor of the Glendale Evening News, the committee's action and their reply to the Wood firm were approved.

Mr. Hall of the Wood Manufacturing company was engaged in manufacturing holders for phonograph disks and that they had a contract for supplying Columbia graphophone stores with those holders. The Columbia Graphophone company had 8000 stores throughout the country. He also stated that the usual payroll of the company was about $1300 a week. They wanted to increase their plant and expected to have 125 men in their employment and to have a payroll of from $2000 to $2500.

Mr. Mattison B. Jones was then called on by the toastmaster to speak on "What Makes a City Beautiful, Hustling and Moral." Mr. Jones said that what made a city beautiful was its women; what made it hustling was its men, and what made it moral was the spirit of the citizens. When moral principles controlled the people then the city was moral. There never could be any doubt as to the answer of the people of Glendale on any moral question. They had created for themselves a moral atmosphere and in it they lived and moved and had their being. They had surrounded themselves with an atmosphere from which evil conditions were eliminated and every influence that could elevate and improve was encouraged. It was in this spirit, too, that the Chamber of Commerce worked and that accounted in great measure for the success of their efforts.

In the absence of Mr. W. E. Evans, city attorney, through illness, the Rev. W. E. Edmonds was called on to speak. In the course of a speech characterized by pleasant humor he advocated united effort to de-

STATE OF THE NORTH

FORMER RESIDENTS OF MINNE-SOTA ADD TO THE GLENDALE
NEWS REGISTER

Few states have more respect on account of both their past and recent history than Minnesota. Linked with memories of the old French Dominion the exploits of Father Hennepin and the journeys of La Salle, Minnesota has had a varied tale to tell of the vicissitudes it has endured. With a winter that sometimes rivals for a brief period the intense cold of Alaska Minnesota yet has sufficient of the sun's heat in summer to insure abundant crops of wheat and corn and from a farming point of view would be difficult to excel.

Recent visitors from Glendale who went through Minnesota had much to say about the advance that is noticeable in the cities. St. Paul and Minneapolis are cities that have reached the metropolitan stage. They have grown together till the twin cities are almost one and the time is not far off when they may have a single government as their interests are identical. The citizens that Glendale has gained from the state of Minnesota are men and women of great natural ability and bring with them the staying power of the strong races that people the northern plains from the shores of Lake Superior down the banks of the Mississippi. Here are some of them:

PACIFIC AVENUE P. T. A.

ALL COMMITTEES OF PACIFIC
AVENUE PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATION BUSY

There was the usual good attendance at the Pacific Avenue Parent-Teacher association Wednesday at the Pacific Avenue school. The parliamentary class met at 2:30. The members were enthusiastic and responded quickly in the drill, which made it instructive, practicable and indeed enjoyable. The regular meeting at 3 o'clock opened with all repeating in unison: "I pledge allegiance to my flag and to the republic for which it stands—one nation, indivisible with liberty and justice to all."

All the committees showed activity in each branch of the work. The chairman of the Ways and Means committee, Mrs. G. D. Roach, has a bazaar planned to which she asks all the friends to contribute some article. Mrs. Roach invited all friends to her home, 1428 Lomita avenue, Friday, Nov. 19, to sew on work prepared for the bazaar that is to be held in December. Mrs. Jordan, the emergency chairman, stated that 21 garments had been donated to the emergency box, and that the next sewing party and donations would be held at the home of Mrs. Holstead, 1438 W. Seventh street.

Congressman Charles H. Randall has sent this school flower seed which he hopes will be used to the best possible advantage. The Glendale Garden Society's invitation to be present at the lecture to be delivered in the high school Nov. 18 by Mr. George Maxwell of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce was accepted with pleasure. The children of this school will be glad to attend this lecture and learn from the stereopticon views he will show the way to beautify their district with flowers and vegetables. These little ones are very much interested in this work, for Miss White has taught them agriculture this term.

Mrs. LeRoy Bosserman, chairman of the program committee, pleased the audience greatly, for they had something from each number to carry home from the following program:

"Talk on the Care of the Teeth," Dr. L. N. Rudy.

"The Diet of the Young," Mrs. A. S. Chase.

"Impressions of Peace Gained at the San Francisco Fair," Rev. Irving Mills.

Group of songs, Miss Mattiebell Provolt, accompanied by Mrs. Bosserman.

The December meeting will be held in the evening with the program in charge of the teachers.

FAREWELL DINNER

The attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Francy, 1554 Ivy street, was the scene of a merry party on Thursday evening, when they extended their gracious hospitality to all Iowa people at dinner, complimenting Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stewart of West Point, Iowa, parents of Mrs. Francy, who are leaving shortly for their home after several weeks spent at the two fairs and visiting relatives and friends in California.

Besides the honorees and their host and hostess covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. David Francy, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Nunn, Mr. and Mrs. George Staub and small son, Messrs. Harry and Mark Francy, all of Glendale; Mrs. Harriet E. Lewis of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Shelton of Chicago, Mr. C. T. Hampton of Twin Falls, Idaho, Mr. C. E. Hampton of Twin Falls, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Parsons and Mrs. W. J. Francy of New London.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart say that the pleasant memories of California and the hospitality of her people will never be forgotten.

LAVENDER AND GOLD

One of the prettiest informal affairs of the week was the luncheon presided over by Mrs. Jordan S. Neel in her home, 1456 Salem street, at high noon Wednesday.

Lavender and gold chrysanthemums, except upon the luncheon table and here all gold blossoms rested.

Dainty cards marked places for Mesdames William S. Althouse, Gus Pulliam, C. B. Wilde, Harry Neel, Dwight Wood, Harry Lynch, A. H. Eddy, Ed M. Lynch, E. B. MacDonald and Miss Dorothy Wood of Glendale; Mrs. Ralph Pearson and Miss Gladys Barlow of Los Angeles, Miss Lorraine Watson of Berkeley and their charming hostess.

WEATHER FORECAST—Fair tonight and Saturday; west winds.

VARIED MENTIONS

POLICE NEWS, FRUIT GROWERS' CONVENTION, MISS WAITE LECTURES

FOUND NO FAULT IN HIM

Complaint was made to the police department Wednesday by parties in the city that a man peddling or demonstrating a special indelible ink was acting in a suspicious manner, inasmuch as he used for his demonstration blank checks and asked his prospective customers to sign their names to them, afterward showing how easily names written in ordinary ink could be erased. Chief of Police Herald made inquiries and rounded up the man, who proved to be, as far as could be ascertained, innocent of wrong intent. He was ordered, however, to take out a peddler's license and then permitted to go free.

FRUITGROWERS' CONVENTION

Quite an interesting convention will be held in Visalia Nov. 18-20, under the auspices of the State Commission of Horticulture, when the California State Fruit Growers will meet. The first day will be devoted to subjects bearing on marketing and rural credits. The canning and the marketing of fruits will be handled by experts. Such other subjects as the standardization of oranges and co-operation in marketing olives will also be exhaustively treated. There will be a session for women when "Jelly Making" and "Bee Culture" will be discussed. The cultivation of walnuts will be detailed and a great deal of valuable information given regarding mildew, scale and injurious insects. The County Horticultural Commissioners will also hold meetings Nov. 16 and 17. There will also be an industrial exhibit of machinery, fruit products and other things. A fare of one and one-third rae can be secured by rail.

MISS WAITE LECTURES BEFORE P. T. A.

The regular meeting of the Colorado Boulevard school Parent-Teacher association was called to order Thursday afternoon, November 4, by the president, Mrs. Leroy W. Bosserman, following a parliamentary drill which was both instructive and enjoyable.

At three o'clock the ladies assembled for the regular meeting. After disposing of all important business matters the retiring president, Mrs. Bosserman, introduced the new president, Mrs. A. M. Beamon, who took the chair immediately, and Mrs. Curtis was elected to fill the office of vice-president.

The first speaker introduced by Mrs. Beamon was Dr. Minnie S. Proctor of Los Angeles, substituting for Dr. F. N. Arnold of this city. Mrs. Proctor calls herself the "Missionary Worker" on children's mouths, and her talk, illustrated with charts, was from a professional standpoint along dental lines and the care of young children's mouths and teeth.

Following Miss Gertrude Champlaine gave a piano selection, Sodman's "Firefly," and then she accompanied Mrs. John H. Orth, who in her usual charming manner rendered a group of Indian songs. "Indian Lodge" by MacDowell was played by Miss Champlaine.

Then Miss Ida Waite, principal of the school, took us verbally, assisted with over 100 pictures and post cards, on a trip through "The Land of Surprises," which was given in a most interesting and delightful manner. So vivid were all her descriptions that at the conclusion one felt they had really visited Alaska themselves.

Miss Waite's beautiful collection of baskets was on display in the lecture room. After that wonderful imaginary trip the charming speaker presented the "Sistine Madonna" by Raphael, to the school.

This afternoon Miss Waite will give the same lecture before the pupils of the fourth, fifth and sixth grades of her school.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Osborn of Montrose, Colorado, came to Glendale to attend the funeral of their son, George Osborn, who died at the Sanitarium last week, and are about to return home again. The deceased had been a resident of the Sanitarium for two years before his death. He was in the banking business in Denver and suffered from a nervous breakdown brought on by too earnest attention to his work. Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Osborn are guests at the home of Mrs. S. C. Porter, 821 W. Fifth street. Mr. Osborn, who is a banker, owns a good deal of property in Glendale.

GLENDALE, CALIFORNIA, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1915

GROWTH OF FARM TENANT SYSTEM

Among the excellent amendments that were lost during the recent political debacle in California was the rural credit system. The need for such a system and other features of a similar nature is seen in the fact that in the United States, once the great land of farm-owners, 37 per cent of the farm land is now under the tenant system. That is the result of the independent system of financing farms. Each farmer tries to borrow for himself and to market for himself instead of doing it through an organization of the kind the Germans have in their landwirtschaftsrath.

Year after year a large proportion of the farmers of the country have to plead in the most humiliating manner for money to finance his crops. He has to pay large interest on short-time loans. If he fails to pay the loan promptly he loses his land and another tenant farmer is added to the list. When the farmer takes his crop to the market he has to accept the market price or leave it, even if it is less than his crop cost him to produce. His debts keep piling up month after month. At last he is compelled to sell. From year to year he lives at random even at the best. What can be done to obviate such miserable conditions can be seen in the wonderful results produced by the various fruit-growers' associations and bean-growers' associations of California.

There is not the slightest necessity for continuing under such a deadly system as this. In the end, if it be continued, this system will kill the country sooner than any other cause of decay. Great Britain and Ireland are suffering at the present moment from just this cause. The greater part of the land is in the hands of a mere handful of idle individuals and the hardworking tenant pays a rent that he cannot afford and has a very limited credit at the bank.

Ancient Rome held its supremacy throughout the world until its small landowning farmers were crushed out of existence. The same thing is happening in the United States today. If it is intended to save the small farmer from ruin it is essential to establish a Market and Rural Credit System. This is not only a matter that concerns the farmers, it concerns the nation. It is of vital importance.

"Ill fares that land to hastening ills a prey
Where wealth accumulates and men decay."

So sang the poet Goldsmith in his significant poem, "The Deserted Village," in which he foresaw exactly what has happened in the British Isles, where the small owner was crushed out and the nation lost the source of its national greatness. The lesson may well be taken to heart here. The farmers of the United States ought to co-operate. Then there would be no fruit rotting on the ground in both New England and California. Every farmer in the United States instead of looking at all his problems through no eyes but his own, would be looking at them efficiently and intelligently through the eyes of millions of his fellow farmers and solving them with their aid.

SEEING AMERICA FIRST

In an article in these columns yesterday it was pointed out that the State of Washington has one of America's show cities, situated in such marvelously beautiful natural surroundings that it would be difficult to find another scene to rival it. Yet nature is beautiful everywhere. Seattle and Tacoma, twin cities of the Sound, separated from each other by a trifling distance of thirty-seven miles that is easily bridged over by electric express trains in less than an hour and in the same or even shorter time by the boat, well-styled "the Flyer," are as different from each other as two cities of different ideals can be.

Seattle, in the old days, the days when the gold rush was on to the Klondike and Alaska, was a city of hills. Nothing could have been more impressively picturesque than the appearance of the old city as the boat would come in from Alaska, San Francisco or Vancouver to those on board. Towering far above the city was the old Washington hotel. Set on an eminence so high and steep it needed a special railway of its own to bring its guests to its doors. Hills and valleys undulated through the town and sloped gently down to the weird waters of Lake Washington. However, the Seattle spirit was not long in manifesting itself. It was entirely too slow for the enterprising citizens of the city that guards the northwestern limit of the United States to sit down content with hotels that needed special railways to reach them and grades that even cable cars found it difficult to mount.

Seattle set to work to cut down her hills. The scheme was one of enormous expense and in the carrying of it out many a property holder was wiped out and many a picturesque spot was also destroyed. To this hour citizens of Seattle are groaning under the burdens of the new state of things; but Seattle is a modern city. The new Washington hotel is accessible without a railroad. The only city on the Pacific coast with a real skyscraper of forty-odd stories, is Seattle.

Seattle got on to the pace it liked. It got ahead. It hustled and hustled and pushed and strove and expanded and grew and now looks out over the lovely waters of the Sound a veritable queen of the northwest. With a magnificent natural harbor of great depth, where the largest vessels can be docked without trouble, Seattle has developed a wonderful shipping trade and just at present is sending immense quantities of food, clothing and munitions of war to Russia, by way of the Trans-Siberian railway. It is a roundabout route, but it is safe. No German submarines can waylay the traders, although some of the emissaries of that enterprising country are credited with burning down part of the Seattle docks after several trials.

In the summer time when the Alaskan boats are sailing every second day or so the scenes at the docks are lively and interesting. Everything betokens life, activity and progress. Thousands throng the docks every time an Alaskan boat sails. The interest in the mystic land of the arctic never dies. Seattle will never let it die either. It is an asset, a business asset, as Seattle well knows.

Tacoma is different. It is a city of business but it is also pre-eminently a city of culture and leisure, a city of gentlemen of leisure, as Seattle is essentially a city of men of business.

COMING, YOUNG PEOPLE, NOTICE

A great union meeting of the Young People's societies of the Glendale, Tropic and Casa Verdugo churches will be held at the Glendale Baptist church on Sunday evening, November 14, 1915, at 6 o'clock. The theme of the meeting will be "How the Denominations May Be United in Service." Isa. 52:7, 8. This will be one of the most helpful and most largely attended young people's gatherings ever held in Glendale. Come yourself and bring all the friends you have. Help advertise this great event far and wide.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC WORK

Public notice is hereby given, that the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale, on the 11th day of October, 1915, did, at its meeting on said day, adopt a Resolution of Intention, Number 870, to order the following improvement to be made, to-wit:

Section 1. That the public interest and convenience require, and it is the intention of the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale to close up, vacate and abandon for street and alley purposes all that portion of Stanley avenue lying east of the southerly prolongation of the east line of the Hannover Tract, as per map recorded in Book 12, Page 159 of Maps, Records of Los Angeles County, California, said portion of Stanley avenue to be vacated being twenty-five (25) feet wide by two hundred and ninety (290) feet, more or less, long.

The district to be assessed to pay the damages, costs and expenses of said improvement is described in and reference is hereby made to said Resolution of Intention Number 870 for further particulars of said work.

T. W. WATSON,
City Manager and Ex-Officio Street Superintendent of the City of Glendale. 56-65

"Pop, what's a pessimist?"
"A man who's seasick during his entire voyage of life. Gwan to bed now, son."—Princeton Tiger.

Miss Jeanette Chandler of Spokane, Washington, is a house guest in the home of the Wm. Lees.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Parker of 227 South Central avenue are among the Glendale people who will attend the dance and card party of the South Gate chapter of "The Court of Amarauth" at Goldburg's, in Los Angeles, this evening.

Mrs. H. V. Brummel of 1453 Milford street very recently entertained the Neighborhood club in her pretty bungalow home. Guests were Mesdames Nellis, Pete, Thompson, Birthmoore, Fletcher, Empee, Hellyer, Jenkins, Lepleman, Hosford and the hosts.

Mr. Isaac A. Pearson, after a summer of cantaloupe shipping from Rocky Ford, Colorado, followed by a week in Pittsburg, Pa., in the interest of the firm, arrived in Glendale Wednesday and spent two days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac H. Pearson, 490 W. Fifth street. He then reported to his brother in Brawley, Mr. Guy Pearson, manager of a large cantaloupe business in that place.

Miss Myrtle Pulliam, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Pulliam, very recently returned from a most delightful and extensive eastern trip. During Miss Pulliam's absence she visited in Boston, Worcester, Washington, D. C., Duluth, Niagara Falls, several cities in Connecticut, Shepard Town and Hancock, West Virginia, returning by way of San Francisco, where two weeks were spent viewing the fair; also the "Big Trees" of Santa Cruz.

DANCES ARE POPULAR

Prof. T. B. Hollister's dances each Friday evening at Butler's hall are becoming very popular, the attendance each week being very large.

It is up to Mount Lassen to pout. It is receiving but little attention in the news dispatches.

SUNLAND AND LITTLELANDS

Mr. B. W. Barkley of Greely avenue, who has been so seriously ill, is slowly growing better.

Mr. and Mrs. George Osborne were guests with friends at dinner last Sunday in Los Angeles.

Mrs. John T. Ward of San Ysidro road was shopping in Los Angeles last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Eagler were visitors at Ocean Park on Wednesday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Catt of Sunset boulevard entertained at dinner last Sunday Mrs. Catt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Steen of Manzanita drive.

George H. Maxwell delivered an address, "The Patriotism of Peace," before the Evening City club of Los Angeles last Monday evening at Christopher's, South Broadway.

Mrs. Kearney of El Centro avenue and San Ysidro road was taken very sick Tuesday night with something resembling the gripple. After an illness of several days she is rapidly recovering.

Miss H. L. McKee of San Ysidro road was called to Los Angeles last Saturday on important business. She was absent for several days, returning the first of the week.

Miss Booz of Alhambra is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Zachare at Hillside ranch. She is a nurse at the Los Angeles hospital and is spending her vacation in Littlelands.

Mrs. W. R. Mehard of Stephen's way was away from Littlelands recently for several days, shopping in Los Angeles and visiting in Long Beach. Mr. Mehard joined her Saturday for a week end visit. They returned home the first of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Leland and children visited recently with Mrs. Leland's mother, Mrs. Hoffman of Stephen's Way. They were on their way from Madera to Michigan and stopped off at Littlelands to spend a day or two.

Mr. Shiras, who is making a success of the poultry business, gave some interesting points, at the Friday night meeting, on this topic. The problem of green food for chickens in the spineless cactus, which he is very successful in raising. He says to build up a chicken business to 600 chicks, the plant would be valued at $1000. And on that many chickens one should net in a year $600, which would represent the pay for one's labor.

The Pigeon club had a most interesting meeting Monday night at the home of Mrs. Linnaberry. Many items pertaining to this industry were discussed, such as the best periodicals for instruction, substitutes for tobacco in nest building, the best and cheapest feed, market facilities and many other topics. This promises to be one of if not the leading industry in the valley in the near future. Mr. Walter G. Paul of La Paloma pigeon loft is the efficient leader of this club. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Johnson on Pine street the first Monday night in December.

The late Herman Ridder of New York wanted to be a good American, but a conflict of emotions rendered the task difficult towards the last.

velop the city and praised the work of the Chamber of Commerce, which he maintained, deserved the united support of the community.

Miss Bertha Jackson gave two clever dramatic readings, accompanied on the piano by Miss Brown.

Mr. J. N. McGillis said that the city must look not to the past, but to the future. The Chamber of Commerce had a specific work to be performed and it was the duty as well as the interest of citizens to aid that work and not to criticize it. He said that every encouragement should be given to such a firm as the Wood Manufacturing company to settle here. On the phonograph attachments manufactured by that firm the words "Glendale, Cal." would be stamped and thus carried into millions of homes throughout the country. That would help to advertise Glendale. He urged members to support the chamber and put it financially in such a position as would enable it to do more good.

Mrs. John Orth sang in excellent style, with taste and feeling, "Somewhere, Somewhere Calling." In response to an encore she sang "Virginia Lee." She was accompanied by Miss Brown with excellent art.

Mr. A. T. Cowan, proprietor of the Glendale Evening News, spoke on the necessity for unity in all things that concerned the city's welfare. He indicated that the function of a Chamber of Commerce was to act as a balance wheel in a community. It should identify itself with every expression of civic activity, yet become a partisan in none. It should, in short, be neutral and yet a force.

Mr. T. W. Watson, city manager, spoke on the function of the Chamber of Commerce as a part of the municipal organization. Nothing was more needed in Glendale than a large and active membership of the Chamber of Commerce. The city counted itself fortunate in getting the help of these men. It was a good thing for the members of the board of trustees to come in contact with the people, and thus learn what they thought about taxation for instance. This knowledge would serve to regulate expenditure and thus benefit the city. He heartily endorsed the efforts of the chamber to get factories located here. It needed money to run the city and it was a good thing to develop and encourage the development of business and the establishment of manufacturing in the city. That meant the expenditure of a large sum of money here every week and tended to encourage the growth of the city. In all this the Chamber of Commerce was ever actively concerned and thus deserved the thanks of the community as well as their active and hearty support.

Mr. E. U. Emery, vice president of the First National Bank of Glendale, congratulated the Chamber of Commerce on having that night the largest meeting of its kind ever held in Glendale. It marked, he said, the community's sense of what the Chamber had done for the city. He was present at the first meeting of the Chamber five years ago and aided in establishing it. He had also held office as its president and had been re-elected to that office. He professed himself ready to aid the plans of the chamber in every way possible.

The Rev. B. D. Snudden of the First Methodist Episcopal church expressed his astonishment when he came into Glendale and found the marvelous advance it had made. He stated that he was heart and soul with the Chamber of Commerce in all its efforts and would lend any assistance in his power.

Mrs. H. E. Bartlett stated that it was her desire both in her private capacity and in that of president of the Tuesday Afternoon club to aid the work of the Chamber of Commerce.

The Rev. C. Irving Mills urged loyalty to the City of Glendale and to its merchants. Those who lived in the city should buy in the city. In this way the city would be rapidly developed.

The toastmaster then declared the business of the evening closed, and the symposium came to an end with the general feeling that much had been accomplished to foster unity and harmony in the city.

GLENDALE GARDEN SOCIETY

To All Adults and Children

The Glendale Garden Society invites you to be present at its first public meeting, to be held at the High School Thursday evening, at 8 o'clock, Nov. 18.

Mr. George Maxwell, lecturer at the L. A. Chamber of Commerce, will give a free stereopticon talk, dealing with the wonderful possibilities of this district along gardening and horticultural lines, including the treatment of vacant lots.

The Glendale Garden Society represents just part of the growing enthusiasm felt by organizations and individuals alike regarding cultivation of the soil in this land of sunshine.

You are cordially invited to attend this meeting, to become a part of this movement, and to lend your aid in the effort to make a beauty spot of the city in which we live.

TROPICO

A very pretty wedding ceremony was solemnized Thursday at high noon at the home of Mrs. David Wood, 125 West Tropic Avenue, when her daughter, Miss Isabel Wood, became the bride of Mr. Perley Chandler. The home throughout was most beautifully decorated in a graceful arrangement of fragrant pink mignonette roses and ferns. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John Troy of the First Baptist church of Glendale and was witnessed by only the relatives and near friends of the high contracting parties. The bride, who is a most charming and accomplished young girl, was handsomely gowned in white silk. The veil she wore, which was caught up with a wreath of orange blossoms, is an old heirloom and has been worn on similar occasions by members of the bride's father's family in Scotland for several generations. A shower bouquet of pink Cecil Bruner roses completed the exquisite bridal trousseau. Miss Janet Wood, sister of the happy bride, also wore a dainty gown of white silk and carried an arm bouquet of pink mignonette roses. Mrs. C. L. Chandler, aunt of the groom, presided at the piano. Mrs. Edward Henry Weston, another aunt of the groom, sang very sweetly "Because" and "O Fair, O Sweet and Holy." Following the wedding breakfast Mr. and Mrs. Chandler left by auto for San Diego, where they will spend their honeymoon.

Many beautiful and useful wedding gifts were showered upon this happy couple which later will adorn their home at 470 Rock Glen avenue.

Golden hued and large white fluffy chrysanthemums arranged in handsome bowls and vases marked the beautiful decorations in G. A. R. hall Thursday when the Tropic Thursday Afternoon club held the regular semi-monthly meeting. Following the business session, at which Mrs. Charles O. Barker, president, presided, a very interesting program was presented. Mrs. R. J. Sterrett, state chairman of education, gave a splendid talk concise, yet comprehensive in every detail on "One Step in the Americanization of the Immigrant." At the conclusion of the talk Mrs. Barker was requested to appoint a committee on literacy and education for Tropic. A musical program preceded the social hour. With the accomplished pianist, Miss Helene Morgan, Mrs. E. Leslie Eames who possesses a rich soprano voice of excellent range, and Signor Murio David, the noted tenor, rendered several solos and duets which so delighted the audience as to call for several encores. Seated at prettily appointed lunch tables, centered with vases supporting fragrant roses, Mrs. Charles M. Turch, Mrs. Seeley Moe, and Mrs. J. Herbert Smith dispensed a generous hospitality. Others assisting the hostess were Mrs. William C. Mabry, Mrs. Karl Hollingsworth and Mrs. J. W. Dalrymple. Mrs. H. E. Bartlett, president of the Glendale Tuesday Afternoon club, and Mrs. White, with other members of the sister city club, were present as special guests of the Tropic Thursday club.

The city trustees have granted permission for the automobile race which will be held in Tropic Thanksgiving day.

Wayland Chapman, who so successfully conducted the auto race last Christmas day, is also sponsor for the one scheduled for Thanksgiving day. A large number of entrees have been booked. A free for all will be one of the features. As there are a large number of owners of Ford machines who desire to enter the race it has been deemed advisable to feature one of the events as simply for Fords only. A meeting will be held tonight to perfect all plans for this great event. All public spirited citizens are boosting this holiday event with a vim and an enthusiasm that spells success.

Many are the inquiries that are made relative to the play that is to be given in G. A. R. hall Wednesday evening, November 10. Under the direction of Mrs. Wayland Brown "Si Slocum's Grocery Store" will be given. This will be a "take off" on Frank Davis' grocery and the local postoffice. As the cost includes local talent, it will be a very amusing play and all who attend will certainly get their money's worth. The costumes alone are worth the price of admission. This play is under the auspices of the Tropic Thursday club. A large number of tickets have been sold and all indications point to a large and enthusiastic audience.

Miss Jean Saunders of Los Angeles, who leaves shortly for Arizona, has been the house guest of Mrs. Charles Wallace Kimberly of South San Fernando boulevard for several days.

MISS WILSON TO LECTURE

Miss Margaret Wilson, daughter of the president, was expected to address the Wisconsin State Teachers' associated convention at Milwaukee today concerning the education of children.

PEACHES PEELED BY LYE

In spite of the idea held by many people that lye-peeled peaches are injurious to health, Professor M. E. Jaffa, consulting nutrition expert of the California State Board of Health, says that they are no more injurious than hand-peeled fruits. Except for the marks of the knife on the hand-peeled product, it is impossible to distinguish one from the other. Food value, flavor and quality are unchanged.

The process of peeling fruit by immersing it in hot lye, afterward washing several times with cold water, is used in many canneries throughout the state. The method is rapid and economical. Yet some people will not eat fruit that has been peeled by this process, fearing that it may be injurious to health. No question has been raised, however, concerning the same process in preparing prunes for the market.

Analyses have been made in order to learn if the acidity of the lye-peeled peach is less than that of the hand-peeled peach, and it was determined that the lye process does not affect the acidity of the finished product. The housewife then may be assured that canned peaches peeled by this process are wholesome and that there is nothing in them that may be injurious to health.
